

The Research Institute for Nature and Forest (INBO)
Is offering an internship 'Nature in the City'

The Research Institute for Nature and Forest (INBO) is the Flemish research and knowledge centre for nature and its sustainable management and use. INBO conducts research and supplies knowledge to all those who prepare or make the policies or are interested in them as a stakeholder.

Through its scientific research, INBO supports all agencies dealing with open space in the Flemish government, as well as in organisations involved in nature conservation, forestry, agriculture, hunting and fishery. INBO publishes its results as open data and provides data for international reporting. It participates in (inter)national research networks such as LTER, ALTER-Net, LifeWatch, ...

INBO is an unincorporated internal agency of the Flemish government.

Internship subject

The Nature & Society team is looking for a bachelor (or in training) to participate in the project “Nature in the City” at VAC Herman Teirlinck (Havenlaan 88, box 73 1000 Brussels).

The internship period can start from now on, period to be discussed.

The literature and various projects focus on the link between urbanization / urbanization and nature. The task is:

- Provide an overview of the available projects, datasets, toolboxes and data sources on this subject, with a focus on Flanders, but also Europe and globally
- Making and publishing an overview of the past and current INBO initiatives and projects in an urban nature context

These activities are part of the development of a research program on urban nature at INBO, and are linked to current projects with partners from ao. Germany, Lithuania, Portugal, Spain, Costa Rica and Colombia. In these projects there are also specific tasks that can fit into an internship.

If you meet the requirements below, please contact Sander Jacobs who will act as your internship supervisor.

- You have a good knowledge of English (speaking, reading and writing)
- You have a very good knowledge of Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, PP)
